More info:

Along with thousands of people in other festival cities such as Boulder, Cleveland, Dallas, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Memphis, Milwaukee, Phoenix, Pittsburgh, Portland, and St. Louis, Detroit audiences will enjoy contemporary award-winning Italian films and meet and mingle with Italian film directors as part of this cinematic adventure.

“The 12th edition of the Italian Film Festival USA of Metro Detroit will once again give film lovers a chance to enjoy exceptional foreign films in Detroit as well as in other participating major cities across the country,” said Pietro Sarcina, Festival Organizer. “This year’s event will feature a diverse lineup of Italy’s best film offerings.”

All films will be shown in original language with English subtitles.

The 2016 Italian Film Festival USA of Metro Detroit is supported by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs Minigrant program, administered by the Anton Art Center.

Founded in 2005, the Italian Film Festival USA is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization that brings, for free, premiers of contemporary award-winning Italian films. With 11 other major metropolitan cities and more than 10,000 viewers, the festival is one of a kind in all the United States. Last year’s event in Metro Detroit drew more than 3,500 people and was the most highly attended.
